Civil No. 20-17452 (RMB/AMD)

ORDER

This matter having come before the Court by way of joint motion [D.I. 43] of the parties seeking a ninety-day stay of this action; and the Court noting that this action involves an insurance coverage dispute arising from an underlying negligence action brought by Thomas Tafrow in the Superior Court of New Jersey; and the Court having granted two prior requests for a stay of proceedings because Mr. Tafrow has died and the parties sought a stay until a personal representative was appointed on behalf of Mr. Tafrow's estate; and the parties now jointly moving to further extend the stay for ninety days because a personal representative still has not been appointed on behalf of the estate of Mr. Tafrow; and the parties representing that Mr. Tafrow's counsel has filed a letter indicating that "an estate attorney has been hired" and anticipates that an administratrix will be appointed within the next 90 days (Joint Motion for Additional 90-Day Stay of Action [D.I. 43], p. 2); and the Court noting that pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), the Court may stay discovery upon a showing of good cause by the party requesting the stay, FED. R. CIV. P. 26(c); and the Court having previously found good cause for a stay of these proceedings until a personal representative of the estate of Mr. Tafrow is appointed; and the Court similarly finding good cause to extend the stay as a personal representative has not yet been appointed at this time; and the Court having decided this matter pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 78(b); and for good cause shown:
